“Inspiring lives through learning”

Welcome

People are at the heart of Bournside. Rating us as “Good” in all areas, OFSTED saw that “staff well-being, as well as curriculum knowledge, are paramount”. Our staff and students are Ambitious, Purposeful, Proud, Respectful, Curious, and Supportive. These are our values and whilst you’ll see them written on our website and on our corridor walls, where you’ll really see them is in the way we work together, the way we talk to one another, the way teachers teach and students learn. All that leads to what OFSTED called “a harmonious school”.

We are highly ambitious for the academic progress of our students: our positive Progress 8 score of +0.52 places Bournside in the top 16% of schools nationally for academic progress.

Bournside is an established single academy trust with a PAN of 300. We have a wide catchment, over 200 staff and over 1,800 students. That means we have the resources to provide a wealth of opportunities: a sports centre and 3G sports pitches; a fully equipped drama studio, a large library, modern spacious English and Maths blocks, 12 new and further refurbished science labs and specialist design, technology, computing and media rooms. Our highly successful sixth formers have their own large base within the school too.

No one gets lost in the crowd, however. In their 2022 report, OFSTED commented on the “strong sense of community for both staff and pupils” and that “pupils are ready for learning and engage well with teachers and other adults.” Everyone is a member of one of our six houses; coupled with our vertical tutor group model, the house system aims to nurture and enhance that sense of family and community, strengthen home/school communication, and provide opportunities for older students to act as role models for younger students, enabling them to have meaningful conversations about school life and their future aspirations.

If you have any questions regarding the position please contact Human Resources - recruitment@bournside.gloucs.sch.uk. I would also very much encourage you to visit our school so you can see for yourself why it is a wonderful place to work.

I look forward to receiving your application to join us in inspiring lives through learning.

Job description

Teaching Assistant

We are an equal opportunities employer and value respect and diversity across our school community. Bournside is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. All posts are subject to an enhanced DBS check.

Purpose

- The Teaching Assistant will work as part of the Special Educational Needs Department, supporting the effective operation of the SEND provision on a day to day basis in school.
- To act as a positive role model embodying the school's values of Purposeful, Proud, Respectful, Curious, Supportive and Ambitious.
- To ensure the school and departmental vision is actively implemented (along with all relevant school policies and procedures) working with the SEND Lead Practitioner

Responsibilities

PART ONE: Pastoral

1 Set high expectations which inspire, motivate and challenge students

- Establish a safe and stimulating environment for students, rooted in mutual respect
- Demonstrate consistently the positive attitudes, values and behaviour which are expected of students.

2 Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment

- Have clear rules and routines for behaviour in the classrooms, and take responsibility for promoting good and courteous behaviour both in and around the School, in accordance with the School's Behaviour policy
- Have high expectations of behaviour
- To register students attending an intervention within the first 10 minutes, ensure that they arrive punctually, that they are following the school's uniform policy and are equipped to learn
- Maintain good relationships with students, exercise appropriate authority, and act decisively when necessary.

3 Fulfil wider professional responsibilities

- Develop effective professional relationships with colleagues, knowing how and when to draw on advice and specialist support
- Communicate effectively with parents with regard to students' needs and well-being

- To keep up to date and comply with all school policies and procedures
- To attend weekly staff briefings, scheduled staff meetings and other professional meetings according to the school's published annual calendar, where required
- To alert the appropriate staff to problems experienced by students where necessary
- To set a good example in terms of dress, punctuality and attendance.

PART TWO: Personal and professional conduct

A member of staff is expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of personal and professional conduct. The following statements define the behaviour and attitudes which set the required standard for conduct throughout a teacher's career.

School employees uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside School, by:

- Treating students with dignity, building relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observing proper boundaries appropriate to your professional position
- Having regard for the need to safeguard students' well-being, in accordance with statutory provisions and adhere to the school's Health and Safety policy and Child Protection and Safeguarding policy
- Showing tolerance of and respect for the rights of others
- Not undermining fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs
- Ensuring that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit students' vulnerability or might lead them to break the law.

Any member of staff who leads or is a supporting member for a trip or visit, should abide by the school's code of conduct for school trips and visits, which can be found in Public Documents.

PART THREE: Specific to the role

- Demonstrate an informed and efficient approach to teaching and learning by adopting relevant strategies to support the work of the teacher and increase achievement of all pupils including, where appropriate, those with special educational needs and disabilities.
- Promote, support and facilitate inclusion by encouraging participation of all pupils in learning and extracurricular activities.
- Contribute to effective assessment and planning by supporting the monitoring, recording and reporting of pupil performance and progress as appropriate to the level of the role.

- Communicate effectively and sensitively with pupils to adapt to their needs and support their learning.
- Maintain a stimulating and safe learning environment by organising and managing physical teaching space and resources.
- Recognise and respect the role and contribution of other professionals, parents and carers by liaising effectively and working in partnership with them.
- With the class teacher, keep other professionals accurately informed of performance and progress or concerns they may have about the pupils they work with.
- To keep teachers up to date with any changes in the needs being presented by the student or revised strategies that may have been suggested by the SEND team or other agencies and/ or professionals.
- Understand their responsibility to share knowledge to inform planning and decision making.
- Understand their role in order to be able to work collaboratively with classroom teachers and other colleagues, including specialist advisory teachers.
- Communicate their knowledge and understanding of pupils to other school staff and education, health and social care professionals, so that informed decision making can take place on intervention and provision.
- Share responsibility for ensuring that their own knowledge and understanding is relevant and up to date by reflecting on their own practice, liaising with school leaders, and identifying relevant professional development to improve personal effectiveness.
- Take opportunities to acquire the appropriate skills, qualifications, and/or experience required for the teaching assistant role, with support from the school/employer.
- Demonstrate expertise and skills in understanding the needs of all pupils (including specialist expertise as appropriate) and know how to contribute effectively to the adaptation and delivery of support to meet individual needs.
- Demonstrate a level of subject and curriculum knowledge relevant to their role and apply this effectively in supporting teachers and pupils.
- To support the development of a challenging learning environment and promote pupils' self-esteem and independence.

This job description sets out the main duties of the post at the date it was drawn up. However, it is not intended to be an exhaustive or definitive list. Such duties may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the post or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and cannot themselves justify a reconsideration of the grading of the post. You may be required to carry out other duties commensurate with your role.
