Employment Dates: 26/06/2023 – 30/06/2023.

Position Description

If your programming skills are matched by an enthusiasm for problem solving, and your communication skills are as creative as your coding, there is a digital revolution underway in the UK that could use your help as a Software Developer.

You will be working with a team that provides technology to Space, Defence and Intelligence customers. The technology we provide helps our customers delivery their mission to UK citizens – see it for yourself - CGI in space, defence and intelligence | CGI UK. This project is no different, you will be developing software and delivering the needs of a client!

Your Future Roles and Responsibilities

You will gain extensive experience with solving both technical and non-technical problems involving working across the software development lifecycle as part of a small team.

In addition, you will be expected to deliver your work on time and to a high quality and take responsibility for any necessary presentations to the teams. You must be prepared to be flexible and adaptable, and be prepared to share knowledge and take responsibility for the technical delivery of the project.

Required skills to be successful in this role

- Interest in Software Development or Cyber related role
- Plan to have a career within the IT or Cyber industry
- Currently taking Computer Science A Level or equivalent
- Enthusiasm

What you can expect from us

- A tailored experience from a world leading IT services company.
- An exciting week working and learning about the full lifecycle of a project.
- Experience delivering presentation and gaining skills in teamwork and communication.
- Opportunities to ask any questions about a career in IT services.
- Offsite team building activity.
- Food and drinks reception at a local conference centre.

How to Apply

Please complete a short (maximum one page) cover letter detailing why you wish to partake in this work experience and what makes you a perfect candidate for the position. Please attach this letter to your CV and email to craig.murch@cgi.com who can also answer any questions you may have.
