

Settling in at Bournside

Teaching Staff

We will fully support you with your transition to Bournside. Will Penny, Deputy Headteacher, oversees the provision for new staff, including your induction during the first year of teaching with us to support you in understanding and coping with your new role.

Induction day

You will be invited to an induction day in the term prior to joining us. This full day of training provides information about the aspects of Bournside school life which will be needed as soon as you start, such as:

- School Behaviour Code including rewards and sanctions
- Being a tutor including assemblies
- Use of electronic registration and laptops
- Procedures in the Sixth Form
- School Leadership Structure – who to see for what
- Duties
- School communication and meeting systems
- Induction procedures, performance management, and professional development
- Inclusion Support and SEN
- ICT
- Health and safety procedures
- Educational visit procedures
- Our school Library.

Your mentor

You will also be allocated a mentor – probably your line manager – who will meet with you regularly to ensure you have the support you need.

Continuing Professional Development

We are forward-thinking in our approach to Continuing Professional Development (CPD) and pride ourselves on the opportunities we offer to support your progression. Whether you join us as a member of teaching or support staff, we invest in your career through whole staff training, sharing best practice, peer observation, personal and departmental development time, focused workshops, external courses, and performance management and review.

We are delighted to have been awarded the Gold Award for Professional Development from the Teacher Development Trust (TDT) in recognition of our CPD provision for teaching and support staff.

The auditor praised the consideration of the needs of all colleagues is a real strength here, in particular considering how best to support the CPD needs of part-time staff and flexible working, showing a real understanding of the impact that a supportive working environment can have on teacher wellbeing and outcomes for students.
